The White House (IES) - Although some oratory may indicate otherwise, the White House staff is pretty well satisfied with the results on Capitol Hill for this session of Congress.

Chicago (IES) - The Stevenson boom is encountering big evidence of Symington strength from almost every State in the Union.

Berlin (IES) - A book about Onassis, Greek ship owner, is off to a new start after the bad parts were taken out as a result of a suit by the subject.

New York (IES) - The Galindez disappearance investigation keeps getting plagued with reports that he is in East Germany.

Washington (IES) - It is a political axiom that you don't run for Vice President. However, Hubert Humphrey, Senator from Minnesota, has disregarded the rule and is running hard to be Adlai Stevenson's running mate. The inside dope on the Vice Presidency is that the Southern bloc wants a Southerner, or at best a borderer, such as Gore of Tennessee. The A.D.A. wants a liberal far to the left of Humphrey. The practical politicians are inclined to favor Kennedy to offset the apathy of the big city vote toward Stevenson. Truman put Sparkman in the running last time, and may do the same this time. But the last word lies with Rayburn. Best bet as the convention nears is Kennedy.

Washington (IES) - The I.C.C. will be faced with its toughest decision on the raise of Pullman rates requested by the Central and the Pennsylvania. Finally, the realities of railroad passenger travel will be brought home to the Commission, which has ducked them for many years.

London (IES) - Nasser's seizure of the Suez Canal is alive with misconceptions, insiders say.

1. Seizure was not a communist idea at all. It was sprung by Germans who want the job of building the dam.
2. Other Arab powers were not consulted on the move, and they now find that Nasser has a strangle hold on their oil. The Arab alliance may break up if the Arab leaders find the fabulous flow of gold shut off.
3. The entire oil needs of Europe can be supplied from the Western Hemisphere, but not as cheaply.
4. If the oil stops, Great Britain will suffer a cut of about half in her acquisition of foreign exchange.
5. The Israeli, who have been telling the world that Nasser is a wild-eyed dictator, may be believed now.

Parris Island (IES) - Opinion is that McKeon will be found guilty and given 5 years.

Washington (IES) - Dave McDonald, steel workers boss, is now emerging as No. 1 labor leader in the U. S. His handsome figure, hallmark of integrity, has eclipsed Reuther and John L. Lewis. His friends say he is an Eisenhower supporter.
